

General Assembly & Study Days 2004

Pictures

by Christina Sasaki Wallimann

Click to blow up

Ambassador Michael Humphreys, Head of the European Commission Delegation to Bosnia and Herzegovina in a discussion with Sonja Kaufmann, General Secretary of the Conference of European Justice and Peace Commissions

Apostolic Nuncio Santos Abril y Castello discussing with the Austrian Ambassador in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Gerhard Jandl

Bishop Pero Sudar of Sarajevo answers the questions of the Conference

Zilka Spahić-Šiljak in conversation with Anne Durrer, Secretary of the Swiss Justice and Peace Commission

President Dr. Josef Bieger-Hänggi chairs the Conference of European Justice and Peace Commissions

During the annual Study Days, participants at the European Conference assist the lectures on the importance of Bosnia and Herzegovina within Europe

President Josef Bieger-Hänggi lets vote on the admittance of the Ukrainian Commission in the European Commission

President Josef Bieger-Hänggi; Sonja Kaufmann, General Secretary; Bishop Pero Sudar and Mons. Frank Dewane of the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace, Rome, is delighted about the successful Annual Assembly

Interested guests – on the picture Anka Vranić-Bradarić, Advisor of the Vice-President of the Republic of Srpska, Iván Tomljenovic

Rudolf Schoch of SDC (Swiss Cooperation Office) explains the Swiss engagement in Bosnia and Herzegovina

In an impressive way, Vehid Šehić from Tuzla reports about the difficult truth finding and reconciliation process

Branka Raguz, Ombudsman for Human Rights of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina and contact person on issues of injustice suffered during and after the war, talking with Jörg Lür of the German Justice and Peace Commission

Mosque

Orthodox Church

Jewish Synagogue

Islam, Christianity and Judaism meet in Sarajevo.

Source: Justice and Peace Europe, 28.09.2004